

Teaching English as a Foreign Language

Position: English as a Foreign Language (EFL) Teacher

Location: Milan, Italy (with online teaching opportunities)

Job Type: Full-time/Part-time

Job Overview:

As an English as a Foreign Language (EFL) Teacher, you will play a vital role in helping our students achieve their language learning goals. You will be responsible for teaching English to a diverse group of learners, including adults and sometimes, teenagers and children. In addition to in-person classes in our Milan location, you will have the opportunity to deliver lessons online to cater to our global audience.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Teach English Language Skills: Design and deliver effective English language lessons, covering all language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) according to the school's curriculum.
2. Customized Lesson Plans: Create tailored lesson plans and materials to meet the specific needs and goals of individual students and classes.
3. Classroom Management: Maintain a positive and engaging learning environment in physical and virtual classrooms, fostering student participation and interaction.
4. Assessment and Feedback: Regularly assess student progress through assignments, quizzes, and tests. Provide constructive feedback and guidance to help students improve.

5. Technology Integration: Utilize digital tools and resources to enhance online teaching, including video conferencing, interactive whiteboards, and online language learning platforms.
6. Cultural Insights: Introduce students to English-speaking cultures, fostering an understanding of cultural nuances and customs.
7. Professional Development: Stay updated on language teaching methodologies, trends, and resources, and actively engage in professional development opportunities.
8. Attendance and Records: Maintain accurate attendance records, grades, and other administrative tasks as required by the school.
9. Communication: Keep open lines of communication with students, parents (for young learners), and the school administration regarding progress and any issues that may arise.
10. Flexible Hours: Be available for both on-site and online teaching, with the flexibility to accommodate students' schedules.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in English, Education, or a related field.
- TEFL, TESOL, or CELTA certification preferred.
- Previous teaching experience, especially in a diverse classroom environment.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
- Adaptability and the ability to teach online effectively.
- Cultural sensitivity and an appreciation for diverse learning styles.
- Fluency in English, with a clear and neutral accent.
- Proficiency in the Italian language is a plus.
- Knowledge of language teaching methodologies, including communicative and task-based approaches.

Benefits:

- Competitive salary commensurate with experience.
- Professional development opportunities.
- A friendly and supportive working environment.
- Access to teaching resources and materials.
- Opportunities for growth within the organisation
